Weekly Social Interaction Activities

The key priority during school closure is to ensure students are completing their core tasks set by their subject teachers on Show my Homework to the best of their abilities. We also have a range of fun and engaging activities on Twitter which provide an opportunity for pupils to see and engage with friendly faces when they are having a break from their studies.

#MotivationalMonday	We share a motivational story or talk to you about an inspirational person to set you up for the week ahead. Plus, Head of School virtual praise, a special shout out to those who have been nominated by subject areas for demonstrating an outstanding attitude to their home learning.
#TikTokTuesday	Show us your moves! Share your best Tik Tok video on Twitter and tag @PATCarletonHigh every Tuesday by 3pm. Our favourites will be retweeted and all entries will be entered into the weekly #getinvolved prize draw.
#WellbeingWednesday	Suggestions on how to cope with being at home during the lockdown period, as well as healthy body healthy mind workouts. Check out our weekly video every Wednesday at 9am.
#ThoughtfulThursday	We share examples of how people have made the world a kinder place to be and suggest how you can be more thoughtful. Have you helped around the house? Clapped for the NHS? Let us know!
#FunFactorFriday	Friday is the launch day for our weekly PE and Performing Arts #lockdownchallenges! Practise throughout the week and show us your best skills before 3pm on Thursday ! Our favourites will be retweeted and there are prizes up for grabs! Plus, the #getinvolved prize draw will take place at 4pm for all our amazing students who have shared their work, had a special shout out or got involved in one of our challenges throughout the week.

As always, we would love you to share your work with us on Twitter, tag us @PATCarletonHigh — all posts will go into the #getinvolved prize draw on Friday at 4pm. The more things you share, the more chances you will have of winning!
