Dear Parent/Carer

The Launch of Carleton Talks

Carleton High School is proud to announce the launch of an ambitious new initiative, 'Carleton Talks.' Carleton Talks is a captivating podcast series created by students in collaboration with an award-winning content creator, Podlounge. This project represents an exploration of topics and issues relevant to young people in contemporary Britain.

Through Carleton Talks, students from various year groups delve deep into topics including social media, gender equality, religious diversity, and LGBTQ+ rights. Each podcast episode showcases insightful discussions and personal reflections from Carleton High students.

Please following the links below to see the trailer for Carleton Talks and the first episode which focuses on social media and the impact of mental health.

You will see why we are immensely proud of what our students have achieved. This platform is an ideal and unique opportunity to showcase great conversations and encourage others to do the same. After watching the podcast, we are convinced it will trigger interesting conversations around the dinner table.

This is just the start and further recordings will ensure even more students are given an opportunity to explore other experiences and issues that are important to them.

We very much hope you enjoy watching and listening. Carleton Talks: Hear Our Voice

Kind regards

Mrs K Rawling
Assistant Headteacher
